

Recd 9/4/92

Herb Bauld 382-2250

PUBLIC HEARING SEPTEMBER 22ND AND SEPTEMBER 24TH

Chairman calls the meeting to order, introduces the planning commission members, and provides background.

- a) Appointed by the county commissioners, three members from each commissioners district.
- b) Serve without pay and have dedicated the past eight months to zoning project.
- c) Etc.

Chairman opens the public hearing and sets out the procedure that will be followed.

1. Hearing is being recorded.
2. Public notice of the hearing will be read for the record.
3. Introduces David Yearout as the author of the zoning regulations. Indicates that Yearout will present an article by article summary and statement of intent of the proposed zoning regulations and maps and that this will take about 45 minutes.
4. Each person wishing to speak shall be recognized by the chairman and,
 - a) Come to the microphone, give his or her name and address and make the statement to the commission.
 - b) Speaker shall please keep to the proposed zoning subject.
 - c) Speakers need not repeat points already made.
 - d) The time limit for each speaker is three minutes.
5. Statements can be submitted in writing until the close of the public hearing on the 24th of September.
6. Questions on zoning are to be directed to the chairman.
7. Chairman reserves the right to conduct an orderly hearing and take whatever action is appropriate or necessary.
 - a) Please no applause, cheering, or other behavior not proper at a public hearing.

This hearing September 22nd will be continued until Thursday

September 24th - 7:30 at this location. There will be no action taken by the Planning Commission on proposed zoning during this meeting.

At the end of the hearing September 24th, the Planning Commission will close the hearing and take the material under study.